Dedication

The 1967 WOLF CRY is dedicated to Mr. Frank J. George for his untiring efforts in behalf of the Lebo Public Schools.

Mr. George served his community as a member of some school board, continuously, for fifty years.

In 1960 he "retired" but his keen interest in school affairs continued. With the advent of school unification, his interest and devotion again led him to seek and win a position on the board of Unified District 243.

For the countless hours of effort he has given, the thousands of miles he has driven, and words of encouragement and advice he has spoken, students past, present and future will always be indebted.

Thank you, Mr. George!

Administrator's Message

I would like to challenge the members of the class of 1967 to dare to go out and make this a better world in which to live.

May you carry pleasant memories of the school year 1966-67 with you as you leave the halls of Lebo High School.

On behalf of the faculty, I would like to extend you our best wishes for happiness and satisfaction in the fields which you may choose.

Class History

On August 27, 1963, seventeen meek, anxious freshmen entered Lebo High School--the "halls of higher education". Determined to hold their own with the upperclassmen, they completed the first year of high school without encountering too many difficulties. The elected officers for the class were Glenn Craft, president, Floyd Dowell, vice-president, Diana Pock, secretary, and Rolland Mark, treasurer. Mr. Gary Van Leeuwen was chosen class sponsor.

The sophomore class of twenty students participated in high school more fully. Vicki Miller, Nancy Standiferd, and Brenda Ott joined the class at the beginning of the year. Class officers for this merry group were Rolland Mark, president; Diana Pock, secretary, John Davies, treasurer, Cathy Hamman, vice-president; and Mr. Van Leeuwen, sponsor.

With the beginning of the junior year, two main goals were in our thoughts, the Junior-Senior prom, and the senior trip. In November the class presented its play, "Home Sweet Homicide". We carried on several successful money-making projects throughout the year, such as a doughnut sale, car wash, and others. On May 7, 1966, the seniors were our guests at the Junior-Senior prom, which used the theme, "Tender is the Night". The officers who lead the juniors were Galen Miller, president, Glenn Craft, vice-president, Nancy Standiferd, secretary, and Floyd Dowell, treasurer. Class sponsors were Mr. Warren Beavers and Mrs. Linda Burris. We were happy to have Wayne Francis join the class at the beginning of the junior year.

At the close of our junior year we chose the officers to guide us through our senior year, Galen Miller, president, Cathy Hamman, vice-president, Nancy Standiferd, secretary, Floyd Dowell, treasurer, Glenn Craft, Student Council representative, class sponsors, Mr. Beavers and Mrs. Marjorie Sheeley.

Ken Scott joined the class at the beginning of the senior year which opened August 29, 1966. We began the last of our twelve years of education, with twenty-one students. Steve Kellum did not return. We launched our busiest year by holding the annual Senior Carnival, and soon after the magazine sale. Our treasury grew slowly throughout the year with proceeds from a fireworks stand in July, a doughnut sale, the senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," and concessions sold at all ball games.

Twenty-one eager, anxious, but slightly melancholy seniors marched into the gymnasium for the last time on May 17, 1967, to receive diplomas, for it was graduation night.

There was only one more activity for the Senior Class of 1967, the senior trip. At midnight following graduation, the group boarded the bus and left for an unforgettable trip through the South.

We, the Senior Class of 1967, wish to express our thanks to the teachers for helping us throughout twelve years of schooling, the community for its support during money-making projects, our fellow students for the friendship and encouragement they have given us. We wish especially to thank our parents for their guidance and support throughout these twelve years of our education.

Those who have attended Lebo Public Schools all twelve years are David Bartley, Gale Combes, Glenn Craft, John Davies, Cathy Hamman, Terry Knight, Galen Miller, Shirley Sloan, Linda Standiferd, Jim Thorne, and Deanna Zink.

It's the year 1987 and surprises came to the Lebo graduating class of '67. A meeting of two hundred of the country's most amazing celebrities was scheduled to begin this week in Honolulu and every one of the '67 Seniors appeared. Never in history has one school produced so many stars. Our ace reporter Jeremiah Klondike was on the spot to describe the stars.

"First to step off the plane is Glenn Craft. He is now rated as the American woman's most sought-after man. He was heard to say as he stepped into the crowd. "Easy girls, don't squeeze to tight, and let's drop the formality, you can call me Poopsey."

Oh, America, you'll never believe this! Here is the toughest, meanest man in America. He's rated by the F. B. I. as the world's most wanted criminal. Look closely folks, that's Orville "Muggsey" Hutchinson.

What's this sudden burst of excitement? Oh yes, Shirley Sloan is now in Hawaii. Better start running fellows. Miss Sloan just walked away with the gold medal in the Olympic 100 yd. dash. She's now considered the fastest woman alive.

Coming down the steps of the plane is the richest and most successful man in the western hemisphere, Mr. Galen Miller. He is given credit for putting glasses on every poor-sighted person in America. His latest idea won him the Nobel Peace Prize. He provides free glasses for all referees before basketball games.

Stepping off the plane is the world's biggest pig farmer. Jim owns a pig farm north of Lebo. It is said that he and his wife have a pet pig named Arnold, that can almost out-eat Jim.

Hold the wolf whistles fellows! Making her exit from the plane is Nancy Standiferd who just replaced Eleanor Roosevelt as the people's most loved woman. It is said she knows three languages and can speak Spanish quite fluently.

Watch out teenagers here he comes! Kenny Scott, recording idol, has just released his twenty-fourth smash hit which is already selling close to 1,000,000 records. Kenny will always be remembered for his two golden oldies "Roses are Red" and "Violets are Blue."

And now before you is Carol Linhart. Second only to Jenny Lind in voice quality and strength she is now known as the Queen of the Opera Screechers. Carol accredits her great success to her high school music teacher who she swears taught her everything she knows.

Cathy Hamman, first woman governor of Kansas, is now making her appearance. Cathy's first move when she took office was to bring back Jackson's spoils system. Many of her male friends are now in office.

Linda Standiferd, who is next off the plane, is a famous highway engineer. She has recently constructed a speedway to Osage. Linda is wearing a smile because she is about to be married but there was a misunderstanding between Linda and the ouija board about the date.

Vicki Miller, the world's most acclaimed psychologist has admitted one fault, she becomes too involved in other people's problems, but she can rest easier now because she finally got her younger sister married off.

Stepping off the plane in his usual confident manner, Wayne Francis was heard to say that after overcoming some obstacles he has finally made it through college. He is now the owner of the largest chain of supermarkets in the nation.

Pushing her way off the plane is Diana Pock. She is now engaged to the world's greatest basketball player who was a 1966 graduate of LHS. Diana is living in New York where she "just loves the New York people."

Excitement stirs as Terry Knight steps off the plane. Terry is the main character in Mother Goose's new poem "The Old Man in the Shoe."

What's this? Why are all the military men saluting? Oh, it's Admiral David Bartley. David is the only Admiral in the history of LHS who could come back with wilder tales than Mr. Jerry Teichgraeber.

Coming off the plane now is Mr. Thorne's lovely and charming wife, Brenda. If you'll look closely you'll notice their nine children waving from the windows. Mrs. Thorne's new book has just been named America's best seller. It's entitled "How I Found Happiness on a Pig Farm."

Gale Combes the world's most acclaimed bird caller tells us that he owes most of his success to the quacks he ran around with in high school.

The crowd is happy to see Rolland Mark stepping off the plane. Rolland was recently voted the most popular bachelor host of the year. Rolland has attributed his success of being a bachelor for twenty years to being able to "love'em and leave'em."

A great honor is in store for us because the mayor of Chicago, Deanna Zink is stepping off the plane. Deanna is presently campaigning to pierce the ears of every girl in Chicago.

After four years in agricultural training at K-State, our next celebrity, John Davies, revolutionized the labor saving devices. Although John gives the impression he's lazy, he's really "thinking all the time."

Last to leave the plane is the pilot, Floyd Dowell. Floyd received his fame during the Vietnam war when he wiped out single handedly a large group of Red Chinese, color cousins to the Red Baron.

- I, CHARLES BARTLEY, am not going to will anything because I feel I will need it in the future.
- I, GALE COMBES, will my hunting ability to all of the amateurs afield.
- I, GLENN CRAFT, will my ability to be organized to Mr. Teichgraeber.
- I, JOHN DAVIES, will my ability to always stay out of trouble to brother Harlan.
- I, FLOYD DOWELL, will my ability (if any) to fly to anyone who even "thinks" they would like to learn how!
- I, WAYNE FRANCIS, will my curly hair to Linda Thorne.
- I, CATHY HAMMAN, will the wolf head to whoever is brave enough to wear it.
- I, ORVILLE HUTCHINSON, will my ability to work in the lunchroom to anybody who thinks he can master the job.
- I, TERRY KNIGHT, will all my gum wrappers to Mrs. Miller, my speech teacher.
- I, CAROL LINHART, will my quiet, reserved cheering voice to loud, boisterous Marilyn Prowell.
- I, ROLLAND MARK, will my ability to excel in track to Thomas "Henry" Harred.
- I, GALEN MILLER, will my ability to shoot pool to Phil Williams.
- I, VICKI MILLER, will my ability to get along so well with Mr. Allison to Shauna Bartley.
- I, BRENDA OTT, will my ability to irritate Mr. Teichgraeber to Darla Benton.
- I, DIANA POCK, will my ability to refrain from flirting to Janet Miller.
- I, KENNETH SCOTT, will nothing, for I owe nothing.
- I, SHIRLEY SLOAN, will my drum major stick to anyone who can remember where I left it.
- I, LINDA STANDIFERD, will my ability to date older boys to Margaret Linsey.
- I, NANCY STANDIFERD, will $1.00 worth of school pictures to Mr. Kimball to hang in the office.
- I, JIM THORNE, will my '64 chevy to anybody who thinks they can keep it on the Olivet road.
- I, DEANNA ZINK, will my ability to laugh and always have a good time to the faculty of LHS.
- We will the Juniors our good looks and our athletic abilities.
- We will the Sophomores our scholastic ability.
- We will the Freshmen our ability to get along with the teachers.

Football Cheerleaders

CHEERLEADERS--Carol Linhart, Diana Pock, Mascot, Cathy Hamman, Jean Standiferd, Head, Nancy Standiferd.

To open the 1966 football season, the Lebo High School student body burned an effigy. The pep rally consisted of a weiner roast, cheers, a pep skit, pep music, and a talk by Coach Teichgraeber. The highlight of the evening was a snake dance downtown followed by the burning of the effigy.

The Christmas Assembly

The Spanish classes, under the direction of Mr. Peavler, entertained the student body by singing Christmas hymns and carols in Spanish. Some of the selections were "Silent Night," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," and "Jingle Bells."

The Junior Class was host for the Christmas party. The evening was spent dancing until the arrival of Santa, who gave out presents. Instead of buying gifts for fellow students, each brought and exchanged children's toys. Following the party the toys were given to the Salvation Army for underprivileged children in the Emporia area.
